A False Alarm Causes Nine Deaths.

Wattsaw, Sept. 29.—A false alarm of fire was given yesterlay in the synagogus at Kalwarya, near Sun Wolki. The building was crowded with Jews at worship. All started at once for the tree exics, and, despite the shouts of the rabbi that there was no five, fought to get out. After a struggle of ten minutes two-thirds of the congregation were still in the synagogue. As no five had appeared, they became calmer, and with the sid of the carstakers, the rabbi seentially restored quies. Nine dead bodies were found near the exits, and twenty persons lay unconscious and bised ing where they had been trampled.
